ORDER AND REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Pro se Plaintiff Keiron Kenneth Holmes, Sr., who is incarcerated at Chatham County Detention Center (“CCDC”), submitted a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Complaint alleging that various CCDC policies are unconstitutional. See doc. 1 at 5-6. Plaintiff attached a list of other inmates suggesting that all listed inmates join in filing the Complaint. See id. at 8-9. Holmes has also submitted a Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. Doc. 2. After reviewing his application, it appears that he lacks sufficient resources to prepay the filing fee. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS him leave to proceed IFP. Doc. 2.

Under the PLRA, all prisoners, even those who are allowed to proceed IFP, must pay the full filing fee of $350.00. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). Prisoner IFP litigants must pay an initial partial filing fee of 20 percent of the greater of the average monthly deposits to, or average monthly balance in, the prisoner's account for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint. Prison officials are then required to collect the balance of the filing fee by deducting 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). This payment shall be forwarded to the Clerk of Court "each time the amount in plaintiff's account exceeds $10 until the full filing fees are paid." Id. The entire filing fee must be paid even if the suit is dismissed at the outset because it is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim, or seeks monetary damages against a defendant who is immune from such relief.

In addition to requiring payment of the full filing fee, the PLRA now requires prisoners to exhaust all administrative remedies before challenging "prison conditions" in a civil action. 42 U.S.C. § 1997e; see 18 U.S.C. § 3626(g)(2). All prisoner civil rights actions filed after April 26, 1996, are subject to dismissal if the prisoner has not exhausted the available administrative remedies with respect to each claim asserted. Moreover, even if the Complaint is dismissed for failure to exhaust, the prisoner will still be responsible for payment of the full filing fee.

The PLRA also provides that a prisoner cannot bring a new civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action in forma pauperis if the prisoner has on three or more prior occasions, while incarcerated, brought a civil action or appeal in federal court that was dismissed because it was frivolous, malicious, or failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. The only exception to this “three strikes” rule is if the prisoner is in “imminent danger of serious physical injury.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiffs are generally required to pay a filing fee in order to institute a civil action in a federal district court. 28 U.S.C. § 1914. Indigent prisoners may avoid prepayment of the filing fee under 28 U.S.C. § 1915, but must surmount § 1915(g):

In no event shall a prisoner bring a civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action or proceeding under this section if the prisoner has, on 3 or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). A three-striker who fails to show “imminent danger” must pay the complete $350 filing fee when he initiates suit. Vanderberg v. Donaldson, 259 F.3d 1321, 1324 (11th Cir. 2001). Short of that, the court dismisses the Complaint without prejudice. Dupree v. Palmer, 284 F.3d 1234, 1236 (11th Cir. 2002).

Because of these legal parameters, the Court will give Holmes an opportunity, at this time, to voluntarily dismiss the Complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1). Such a voluntary dismissal will not require him to pay the filing fee or count as a dismissal which may later subject him to the three-dismissal rule under section 1915(g).

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

(1) Holmes must furnish the enclosed Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement to the trust (financial) officer of each prison where he has been confined for the past six months. The trust officer will complete and sign the form and return the form and supporting documents to him for submission to the Court. Two copies of the form are enclosed for this purpose.

(2) Holmes must sign and date the enclosed Consent to Collection of Fees from Trust Account. By signing this form, he gives his consent to the collection of the entire filing fee from his prison account in installments, in accordance with the provisions of the Prison Litigation Reform Act.

(3) Holmes must return both the Prisoner Trust Account Statement and the Consent to Collection of Fees from Trust

Account to the Clerk within fourteen days of the date this Order is served.

The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to serve along with a copy of this Order (1) a Prisoner Trust Account Statement form, and (2) the Consent to Collection of Fees from Trust Account form.

Holmes shall have fourteen days from the service of this Order to fill out and return both forms. Once he has complied with the conditions of this Order, the Court will review his Amended Complaint—discussed below—to determine which, if any, claims are viable and which, if any, defendants should be served with a copy of the Amended Complaint. If no response is timely received from Holmes, the Court will presume that he desires to have this case voluntarily dismissed.

Failure to comply with this Order within fourteen (14) days of the date this Order is served shall result in the recommendation of dismissal of this case, without prejudice.

The Court must also address the Complaint's attempt to either join claims from multiple plaintiffs or, perhaps, to pursue this case as a class action, pursuant to Federal Rule 23. See generally Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. As incarcerated prisoners, the plaintiffs must abide by the requirements of the Prison Litigation Reform Act (“PLRA”). Pub. L. No. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321. The Eleventh Circuit has held that the PLRA requirement that “each prisoner pay the full filing fee” precludes permissive joinder of multiple plaintiffs in a single case. Hubbard v. Haley, 262 F.3d 1194, 1197-98 (11th Cir. 2001) (citing 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), cert denied, 534 U.S. 1136 (2002)); see also Scott v. Strength, 2006 WL 2327469 (S.D. Ga. Aug. 8, 2006). The attempt to join other plaintiffs is, therefore, improper. Moreover, Holmes, “[a]s a pro se litigant . . . cannot bring an action on behalf of his fellow . . . inmates.” Johnson v. Brown, 581 F. App’x 777, 781 (11th Cir. 2014). Holmes cannot, therefore, prosecute any of the other plaintiffs’ claims in this case.

Since the factual allegations in the Complaint are general, see generally doc. 1, and Holmes is the only party to move to proceed in forma pauperis, see doc. 2, the Court RECOMMENDS that all other plaintiffs listed in the Complaint be DISMISSED without prejudice. To the extent those plaintiffs seek to assert claims raised in this case, they remain free to file their own separate cases. Holmes is DIRECTED to file an Amended Complaint no later than March 1, 2024. The Complaint may not assert claims on behalf of any other individual, but must be limited to Holmes' claims. To be clear, Holmes must comply with ALL of the above instructions for his case to proceed. That is, he must return the executed Prisoner Trust Account Statement and the Consent to Collection of Fees from Trust Account to the Clerk within fourteen days of the date this Order is served AND submit an Amended Complaint removing all references to any other individual's claims no later than March 1, 2024. He must also comply with the District Judge's Order concerning assignment of this case to a United States Magistrate Judge.

Doc. 4. Failure to comply with any one of these instructions may result in dismissal. See, e.g., Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

This report and recommendation (R&R) is submitted to the district judge assigned to this action, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and this Court's Local Rule 72.3. Within 14 days of service, any party may file written objections to this R&R with the Court and serve a copy on all parties. The document should be captioned "Objections to Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendations." Any request for additional time to file objections should be filed with the Clerk for consideration by the assigned district judge.

After the objections period has ended, the Clerk shall submit this R&R together with any objections to the assigned district judge. The district judge will review the magistrate judge's findings and recommendation pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). The parties are advised that failure to timely file objections will result in the waiver of rights on appeal. 11th Cir. R. 3-1; see Symonette v. V.A. Leasing Corp., 648 F. App'x 787, 790 (11th Cir. 2016); Mitchell v. United States, 612 F. App'x 542, 545 (11th Cir. 2015).

SO ORDERED AND REPORTED AND RECOMMENDED,

this 9th day of February, 2024.
